Special Face Treatments

BYONIK® - Laser & hyaluronic acid

Treat yourself to BYONIK® and the happiness of younger looking skin. Enjoy the immediately visible, long-lasting effects of this natural, pleasant biolifting method.

The specific treatment stimulates the microcirculation and metabolism of the skin utilizing hyaluronic acid. After a gentle exfoliation, BYONIK® cold laser reaches all layers of the skin, stimulating the cellular and rejuvenation processes. Subsequently a mask based on valuable ingredients such as plant lipids, ceramides and aloe vera regenerates the skin moisture and barrier function and reduces wrinkles. A short face massage completes the treatment.
